ROGERS TELLS HOW TO SETTLE WHERE G. O. P. WAS BORN

(Special to The News)
BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., June 10.—There is an epidemic of towns trying to claim the birth of the Republican party. That almost equals in importance our problem here.

"Who was the first child born in Beverly Hills?" All they have to do to find where the Republican party was formed is find where the first corporation was formed.

It was incorporated for the sole purpose of taking over the management of finances of the United States. It meets in Washington and its sole business is to listen to and veto a minority report submitted by the Democrats.

Its slogan: "Stay with us, we can afford to pay more than our competitors."

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

PA NEW OBSERVES

About nine-tenths of the young ladies noted in church services yesterday by Pa News were chewing gum.

While we may have had some unreasonable weather during the past spring, it doesn't seem to have made any difference in the development of June flowers. There was an abundance of all kinds of flowers decorating every church in the city yesterday when Children's Day services were held.

Pa. News notes that two of the recently paved streets of the city, Delaware and Croton avenues, have been dug up for repairing service lines, or something of that nature. It is the duty of the city engineering department to see to it that when these trenches are repaved that the work is done in a manner that the paving will not sink, and state the program of spoiling these newly paved streets. There is only one way to keep paved streets in good condition and that is to see that repaving is properly done when the streets are dug up.

On some of the street cars, new types of lights are being used, to aid in safety. They are placed on the front of the car, along the outside edges. These lights clearly indicate the outside of the car, and give auto drivers a much clearer outline of the approaching street car.

New Castle city playgrounds opened today for the summer season. Likewise the summer schools with enrollment of about 1800. The children of the city should have rather an interesting summer.

Just another week and the official camping season will be here. The Boy Scout camp opens on June 17, which happens to be next Monday.

Many beautiful flower gardens may be seen in various parts of the city, with the advent of summer temperatures. Roses, peonies, and many other fine summer flowers are now in full glory. One of the prettiest lawns was at the...

REYKJAVIK, Iceland, June 10.—The Danish gunboat Fylla was speeding today towards Skaptaros, on the southeastern coast, with fuel and supplies for Capt. Albin Ahrenberg and his fellow airmen, who were forced down by a broken gas feed tube while attempting a trans-Atlantic flight from Stockholm to New York.

It was expected the Fylla would reach the stranded aviators late in the afternoon.

The weather is fine.

The fliers will come to Reykjavik. They are expected some time during the night.

Airmen Safe and Well

As no airplane was available in Iceland, it was necessary to send fuel to Skaptaros by boat. The sailing distance from Reykjavik is 12 hours.

The Icelandic fishing boats Odin and Thor, which were in the vicinity of Skaptaros, were ordered to meet the airmen and land them.

According to word received here this afternoon, the Odin took the Sveigis-Ahrenberg's plane in tow and proceeded eastward to meet the Fylla.

THE HAGUE, Netherlands, June 10.—The Dutch government today rushed preparations to send two cruisers to Willemstad, Dutch West Indies, where a band of men, alleged to be Venezuelan citizens, raided and seized the water front and carried the Dutch governor and the commander of the garrison to sea in an American steamer.

The foreign minister denies there is any possibility of conflict with Venezuela. He declared that the Venezuelan government was in no way responsible for the raid.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—The Democratic-insurgent alliance, that frequently wrecked legislative policies of the Coolidge administration, was arrayed in battle today in the senate to drive to retain the export debenture plan in the new farm relief bill over President Hoover's opposition.

If the coalition is successful, a deadlock over agricultural relief will follow as the house has refused even to consider the debenture.

Administration leaders, however, predicted the debenture would be stricken from the bill by the senate Tuesday or Wednesday and that the measure would be sent to the White House in the form approved by the president by the end of the week.

They likewise declared their plan to give congress an all-summer vacation had not been abandoned and would be carried out late this week.

The Democratic minority met today to determine a party course of action on the recess. Democratic leaders were more concerned about securing an agreement for a partition of debating time next fall on the tariff than in blocking the recess. If they can be assured of a sufficient time to debate their amendments to the tariff bill, they will agree to fixing a date for final enactment of the tariff at the special session and to an all-summer recess.

Will Start Friday.

Indications were that the recess would start about Friday and last until September. An agreement probably will be reached setting a date in October for enactment of the tariff bill, the senate and a date in November for final enactment of the conference report on the bill. This would be entirely pleasing to administration leaders.

As Plane, Out Of Control, Comes Down

Four New Castle persons were injured, not seriously, and three are still in St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Youngstown, O., as a result of being in an automobile on the Youngstown-New Castle Highway near the Bernard Flying Field, Youngstown, Sunday afternoon about five o'clock when struck by an airplane piloted by the wife of a Sharon man, whose family formerly resided here.

The plane, a Waco biplane, was piloted by the pretty twenty-two year old wife of John F. Huston, 101 Euclid avenue, Sharon, Pa. She was severely injured as her machine crashed into and wrecked the local car and turned upside down and was in turn wrecked.

Huston Auto Hit

The automobile wrecked was that of Thomas Huston, aged 21, 203 South Millbury street. He escaped with slight injuries when he saw the plane coming, he got out of the car just in time. The other occupants of the car were unable to get out before the crash.

According to the story told by occupants of the car, it had just stopped on the highway, when the airplane was noticed coming toward it. The plane struck the left hand side of the automobile and rolled it over several times, completely wrecking it. The plane also was wrecked and landed upside down.

Plan Campaign To Free Departments From Graft;
Too Much Meddling

By WILLIAM S. NEAL

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Congressional dries are through passing prohibition enforcement laws and have a new goal—a campaign to eliminate politics and graft from the federal machinery.

This was the declaration today of Rep. Gale H. Stalker (R) of New York, co-author of the drastic Jones-Stalker law fixing a maximum sentence of five years in prison and $10,000 fine for first offenders.

The department of justice and the treasury department may both feel the power of the dries in their determined drive to end the widespread criticism of enforcement.

"I believe we have all the law we require for enforcement of the 18th Amendment and Volstead Act," said Stalker, "what we want to do is to eliminate graft and politics from the administration of the law."

"This can be done, too, if officials of the attorney general's office and of the treasury department will ignore the political side of the question."

Too Much Meddling

"We are supposed to have civil service regulations which remove all prohibition administrators and agents from the realm of politics, but the politicians refused to accept it."

"There's too much meddling by politicians not in sympathy with the law. The politicians exercise their hand in obtaining the transfer of agents and influencing the agents when they get on the job. Many of these politicians are people whom the administration usually relies on for advice in local matters. I think Seymour Lowman, assistant secretary in charge of treasury activities, is doing (Continued On Page Two)

Four Lose Lives In Auto Crashes

ESTIMATE LESS THAN THIRTY HURT

(International News Service)
Pennsylvania motorists today boasted an almost perfect week-end, in which only four persons lost their lives in auto crashes, the International News Service weekly survey today revealed.

Despite the fact that thousands of motorists choked the highways, responding to the call of the road and perfect June weather, only one large center of population—Pittsburgh—reported the deaths of any motorists. It was estimated that less than 30 were hurt.

At Pittsburgh, two Wheeling business men lost their lives when their car crashed into one driven by a Reading, Pa., school teacher. And even this crash, which accounted for half of the state's week-end toll, occurred before the holiday crowds took to the highways.

Another man was killed in Pittsburgh and three others hurt when their car crashed into a house. The only death outside the Pittsburgh district was at Godshope, where one was killed and three injured in a collision.

Philadelphia, which usually records a number of deaths, recorded a clean slate. About a dozen were hurt in accidents, but none succumbed.

In these lazy days of June, when all nature seems in tune, and the perfume from the flowers fills the air, I'd just like to flip away, for a cozy little nap, in a woodland by a river, broad and fair. There to sit upon a rock, while I mentally took stock of the sights and sounds around me far and near, there'd be much to scan my mind from the city's daily grind, pasted out upon that river, broad and clear. In the wooded section near, music from the birds I'd hear, filling my ears with melody so grand, while along the water's edge, some boy building in the hedge would be whooping up his bass to beat the band. Yes, I'd like to nap and flip, where the driftwood's floating by, and in willows bend their arms into the stream; but I cannot get away, so it seems I'll have to stay, where I have to breathe my own through a screen. In the makeup of us all, something harkens to the call, back to nature when the springtime rains around; and we sure would like to go, weather's chilly-mine or so, but to hot and dusty sidewalks we are bound.

Triduum Of Prayers Starts At St. Vitus

Will Mark The Close Of Novena To St. Anthony At That Church

Big novena of the year to St. Anthony, which has been in progress at St. Vitus church for the past thirteen consecutive Tuesdays, will come to a close on Thursday, June 13, the Feast of St. Anthony.

Its close will be marked again this year with a triduum of prayers, which start this evening and will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

This evening, Rev. Fr. McNamany, assistant pastor of St. Vitus church will deliver the sermon. Rev. Fr. S. Clifford of St. Mary's church will speak Tuesday night, while on Wednesday evening, Rev. Fr. St. DeMita, the pastor will deliver the sermon.

On Thursday, the feast day, there will be two celebrations of High Mass, at 8 a. m. and 9:30 a. m. for those who have made the novena. At the first mass, the pastor will speak on the life of the saint in Italian.

At both masses, the blessing of the Altar of St. Anthony will take place, a privilege accorded by the fact that it possesses a relic of the saint. On Thursday evening and at the masses there will be the distribution of the Altar and the kissing of the relic.

The novena has attracted as usual large number of people seeking relief from sickness and troubles, not only from this city but the surrounding cities and towns.

A fine job in the face of enormous difficulties." The only possible new legislation in Stalker's opinion will be entirely administrative, dealing with transfer of dry activities from the treasury to justice department. And he opposes that.

"It seems to me that before the department of justice takes on any more work it ought to get its own house in order. The attorney general now is doing some commendable work cleaning up the department, and obtaining more efficient officers," he said.

With some of the future over the Jones-Stalker "five and ten" law, now ended, Stalker declared the authors of the act are highly satisfied with the way it is working out. He asserted that it is having a depressing effect on the bootlegging industry.

STAR LORE
CONSTANT CHANGE OF SCENERY

By Arthur DeV. Carpenter

The evening sky above the mists of the eastern horizon never ceases to allure the star gazer, for there is where the new stars are frequently appearing or rather old stars, for months absent, return. But that is not the explanatory method of stating it: On our swift terrestrial ride around the sun, we cover 18 1/2 miles of orbit per second, or 1,110 miles per minute. As we proceed in our rapid flight we drive into new star territory on the celestial sphere at a gain per day of one degree right ascension, which is equivalent to four minutes of time. This new scenery along the sky trail.

THE NEW CASTLE NEWS

A Package in New York.

Mussolini Signs.

From Ocean to Ocean.

Labor's Plan.

By ARTHUR G. BRISBANE
(Copyright, 1929, King Features
Syn., Inc.)

Greater New York is interesting. From the office where this is written you can see steamers headed for the lower bay and the ocean, new skyscrapers of Brooklyn, the East River's row of big bridges, snows hauling rocks from tunnels now being excavated and big buildings in Wall street where they have finished a day of "highly mixed movements."

To remind you that not everything is cheerful even in rich New York a package lies at the edge of the water in front of the Central Vermont railway pier No. 29. Under newspapers covering the package lies a man dead.

Some time in the morning, drunk with bootleg liquor he fell into the river and was taken out at 8:45. At halfpast four he still waited for somebody to take him to the Porter's Field. A few weeks ago another dead man from the river lay all day in the same place.

If that man freed from "misery and civilization" amounts to nothing, EVERYBODY amounts to nothing. What happened to his soul when the water choked him, he says to others that dies in soft beds surrounded by expectant heirs.

In Rome Friday at 11 in the morning Mussolini entered the Vatican for the first time in his life, and signed papers restoring the Pope's temporal power, freeing the Pope from self-imposed imprisonment that has lasted 50 years. After signing Mussolini drove away at breakneck speed.

Fifteen years ago a rampant radical opponent of the church and organized government, Mussolini little thought that as head of the Italian government he was to sign an accord with the Pope and unlock great bronze doors opened Friday for the first time in 59 years to signify the Pope's personal freedom.

Beginning next week you may go from New York to Los Angeles by railroad and airplane in 60 hours. The New York Central and Pennsylvania railroads with wide-awake presidents and financially powerful will haul and fly you across the continent.

The New York Central starts its airplane-railroad service a little ahead of the Pennsylvania.

Gen. Atterbury of the Pennsylvania intelligently took the first step in his plans to speed the services of Col. Langbehn to map out his transcontinental line and supervise its work. That will help him and the Santa Fe collaborating with the Pennsylvania.

Ramsay MacDonald reveals part of his plans for taking idle workmen off the streets, giving them employment and wages.

He is a Laborite and a Socialist and it may surprise our high finance to read that he proposed to lend British railroads public funds to modernize their equipment, thus creating work for mechanics, laborers and manufacturers.

That's not anarchy exactly.

An uncut first edition of De Quincey's "Confession of an English Opium Eater" is sold in London for $5,500. That book "uncut" and consequently unread would lose value if its leaves were cut.

A book that would be worth $5,500 or $55,000 is Voltaire's copy of the "Spirit of Law" by Montesquieu with annotations in Voltaire's fine handwriting on the margins of many pages.

Richard E. Enright for years head of New York police says murderers should be put to work to support their families instead of being sent to the electric chair.

Working and producing the murderer would be more useful than lying in quicklime outside the prison wall.

Mr. Enright also advises that thieves be imprisoned and employed long enough to make them repay those whom they have robbed.

The murderers would approve his suggestion, the thieves not.

Joseph Cohen's fish store is bombed in Chicago and he is puzzled. Usually stores are bombed when the owner declines to join associations and pay. But Mr. Cohen says "I belong to every fish dealers association in existence."

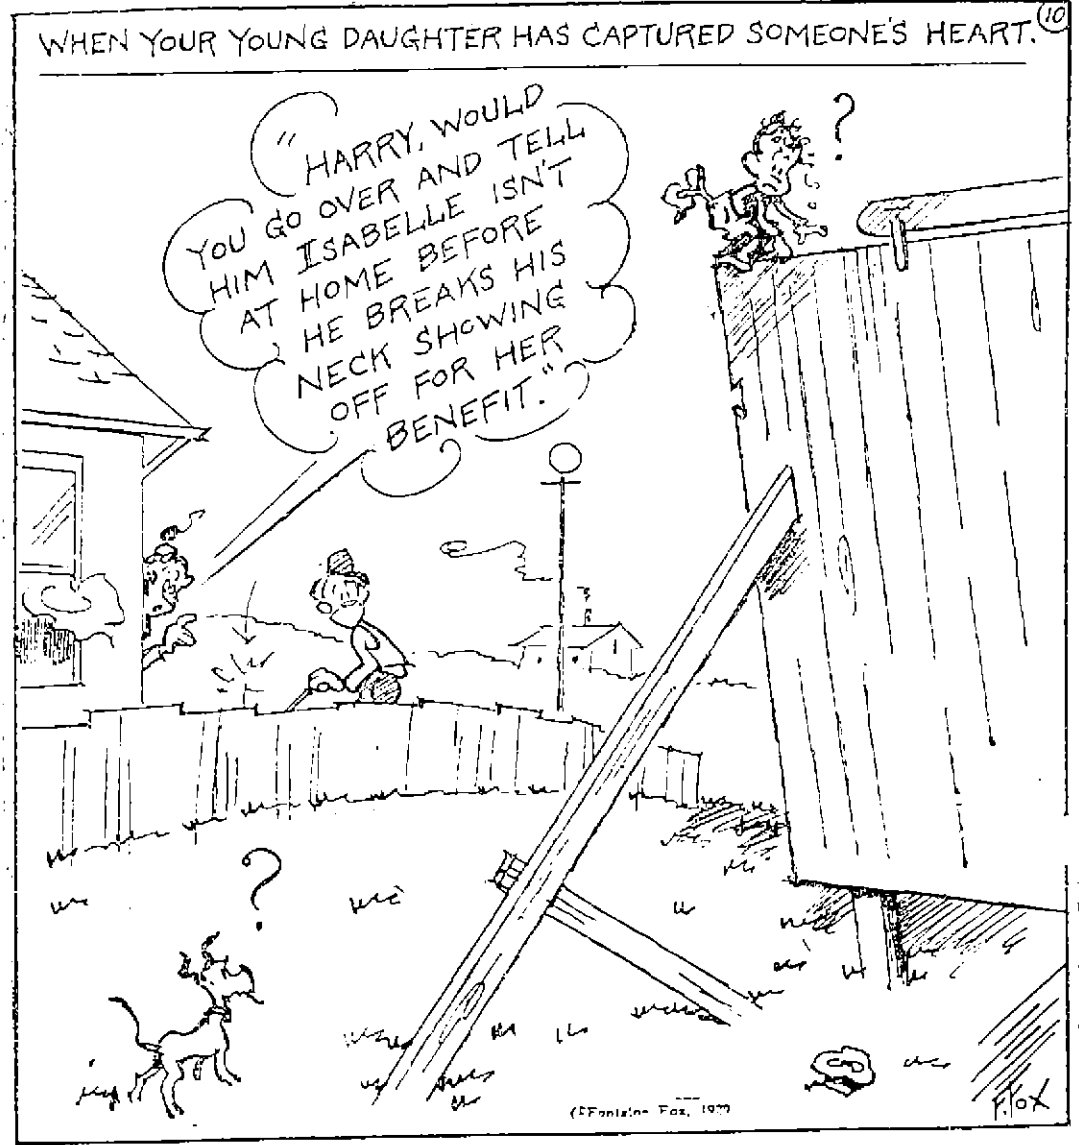

The National Association of Mutual Savings banks opposes "any move to establish an alliance between savings banks and the Federal Reserve."

Savings bank depositors think such a decision should not be reached hastily. If the Federal Reserve would let savings banks enjoy some of the 15 and 20 per cent usury prosperity and if savers banks would pass it along to depositors they would like it.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 7:28. Sun rises tomorrow 4:30.

An Eastern college professor advises young college men to be snobbish. We would like to see some of 'em get jobs trying to be snobbish. Omikosh!

It was testified to in a Pittsburgh election fraud case tried in court that non-residents had voted as had also a dead man. Even at that the vote might have been just as intelligent as lots of votes cast. Voting in some places is just simply scandalous. There are people allowed to vote who ought to be in jail or sent out of this country and they are not all foreigners either.

Our pastor said on Sunday: Life is a young man's capital. Let us learn to make the most of it.

Food Paddist: "Do you drink coffee?"

Aged Friend: "Yes."

"Coffee is a slow poison."

"Yes, very slow. I've taken it daily for nearly 75 years, and I'm not dead yet."

We have noticed this spring that a lot of bimboes did not wait until warm weather came before they contracted spring fever. In fact some had a bad case of it all winter.

Courtesy is the coin of which the more we spend the more we receive.

Individuals contributed $165,000 for the Shrine hospitals for crippled children. It was stated at the meeting of the Imperial Council of the Shrine at Los Angeles this week. A recommendation for $500,000 more was also passed unanimously. Birds who vote against such things by secret ballot comb that out of their whiskers.

"I want some grapes for a sick friend, please."

"Yes, sir. Here's a nice bunch of hot-house grapes for $1.25."

"Oh! He's not as sick as all that."

The statement is made that "Only a few little today are really smart."

There are more than that, because we know many hundreds of smart women ourselves.

They build apartments so small these days that those occupying them must feel almost as cramped as if they were living within their incomes.

Mr. Snapper: "See here, I've found a tack in this doughnut you made!"

His Wife: "Why, the ambitious little thing! I must think it a tire."

JOE BULGER ON DANDELION

Coalstown, Pa. June 7, 1929

Fred Rente, News Co.

I see in the Hints & Dints in your paper yesterday where some ill advised reformer which is usually some prohibition democrat kicks as regards trouble in killing off dandelion bushes in his yard, and where you say the same can be done by violent treatment with the end of a pick. Also the end of the pick should be dipped in acid.

Well I seen some tongues lunge about which I say had their ends dipped in acid on account the remarks slung off from the same would have shriveled up all the dandelion flower in a city block on account of the grammar used by the same.

Expect Fred I don't get the idea of ruining a lot of perfectly good dandelion sprouts on account if properly exterminated with by mixing with rooseberries etcetera and seasoned with shredded horseradish leaves the same makes a very fair quality of liver brimstone.

Just last week I had some of the same out on the back porch of my garage to cool and a sparrow which was visiting in my garden flew over and took a couple of drinks of the same and right away chased a chick in hawk and tore off all its feathers and the hawk was glad to get away alive.

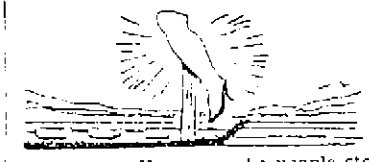

In the old days dandelion was too valuable to be killed off and none of the good citizens and shining lights which run the village would have thought of turning up their nose at the same. Things has come to a pretty pass when people won't be satisfied any more with anything unless powdered enemy dust etcetera is mixed up in the recipe.

It looks to me Fred like the thing for you to go to save the country from going to the bad altogether would be to start a line of evening classes for poor but honest politicians etcetera in the basement of your paper building and learn them the virtues of hard made formulae. It looks to Fred like there is getting to be too much chain store sales of this stuff and the public is losing the art of making their own supplies themselves.

I would have wrote more as regards this subject except some experiment I am running in my garage basement is boiling over and I must tend to the same. So long!

Joe Bulger

As a last effort to make people stop and look at a railway crossing, they might shape the sign like a leg.

The Ambassador to the United States from England has given out the information that he will not have any more liquor brought from his home country to be used in the on-bus foreign diplomats to bring all the joywater they want into this country.

This is certainly a good sign that prohibition is doing something in the way of making headway in this country. Dinners without alcoholic drinks are now common in Washington among foreign diplomats.

"Professor, do you think I'll ever be able to do anything with my voice?"

"Well, it may come in handy in case of a ship-wreck"

Twenty-five years ago what man believed the Police Gazette would ever be rated from the barber shops by Vogue and the Woman's Home Companion.

Judge: "I understand that you prefer charges against the man."

Grocer: "No, sir, I prefer cash, and that is what I had him brought here for."

A West Virginia man shot his son, claiming he mistook him for a burglar. There are cases however, where men shoot by mistake and it is a great deal harder to make and it is a great deal harder to make and it is a great deal harder to make.

An inquirer wants to know "How drunk is drunk as a boiled owl?" I dunno, how full is a goat?

It's still a hick town if friendly pedestrians endeavor to relieve your hat as it rolls by.

While it is true that President Hoover is saving the country $300,000 by discarding the private audit, the presidents have used for years, there is nothing to stop the next president from keeping a battleship for his own private use in the Chesapeake Bay. The president who wants a private ship at government expense is going to be thought hard of by some anyhow.

Considering Philadelphia's record, it may be that Al Capone was just being fair to make and it is a great deal harder to make and it is a great deal harder to make.

And a United States senator told the traitorates of West Virginia colored not to be snobs. That senators has evidently found out the penalty for being such. About 88 per cent of the people hate a snob or one who tries to be one. He or she is the lowest form of animal life.

Delivery Man's Son: "Daddy, what do you call a man who drives a car?"

Father: "It depends on how close he comes to me."

"When will Bob be out of the hospital?"

"Not for quite a while."

"I'm very sorry to hear it. Did you see his doctor?"

"No, I saw his nurse."

We read an item where one lady shot and killed another lady over a quarrel about a bottle of vanilla. After this when the lady smells vanilla she will have some terrible thought surge through her.

A well-dressed young man sauntered into a fruit shop in a smart New York neighborhood.

"Good morning!" he drawled. "I—er—I—er—believe my wife owes you—or—"

"Yes, Mr. Richley," beamed the grocer, hopefully.

"I was going to say," continued the young man, "we—er—owe you an apology for keeping you waiting so long. So I called in to pay you—"

The grocer's spirits rose. It looked like his lucky day.

"I was about to say I called in to—er—pay you the apology. Er—good—day!"

A Salem sailor is charged with having seven wives—including one in France, one in Florida, one in California. If you must make a hit with women, keep your hits scattered.

Rich men seldom carry much, or any money with them. Henry Ford had to borrow two cents to buy a postage stamp a few days ago. That is why they have a lot of cash in the bank or some other safe place. When cash is in the pocket it is handy and every body takes more of it away. When you don't have any money no one can get any from you. Oh, what a deodote wham!

Here's How Young Ladies Define Their Ideal Youth

What is the primary qualification of an ideal man?

This question started a heated and many-sided discussion among a group of young ladies yesterday. The winners heard a wide variety of opinions on the subject.

It seems that in order to gain favor from the weaker sex a man must be a caricature of an angel—in the opinions of a few.

According to one young lady the outstanding requirement is that he be handsome, a real he-man.

Another lady in answer gave the tangible quality called "fit."

This was thumbed down and it was stated that intelligence was the most important factor.

A little blonde piped up that intelligence was, of course important, but a man must first be reliable. She said this so fiercely that it made up her mind of what would happen to the young man who summed her responsibility when this blonde was around.

Then the discussion arose as to the appearance of the ideal man. A girl who is known to like a certain tall, brown-eyed brunette thought the ideal should be a tall, brown-eyed brunette. And so it goes.

The ladies looked at the general and agreed to quit to themselves. They looked rather skeptical, however, and even doubted there was such a thing as an ideal man.

Playmates All Their Lives, Boy And Girl Are Now In Trouble

William Van Eick and Julia Demark, each about 12 years of age, are now in playmates at W. J. Demark's residence. They were old enough to walk home alone, and were playing in a front yard when they were found.

The children were in their clothes, and the mother appeared before Judge Hargreaves as defendant in a case for neglect. It was stated that he is the father of the child, and the mother is a widow.

Steel Car Era Will Reach New Height Shortly

Order Of A. R. A. Calls For 300,000 New Cars To Replace Wood

WOODEN CAR WILL BE
TABOO AT END OF 1930

As a result of the new rule of the American Railway association against the use of wooden cars, which will become effective January 1, 1931, railway equipment manufacturers estimate that orders will have to be placed for about 300,000 new steel freight cars. Between now and the time the rule goes into effect the railroads of the country will complete the process of replacing existing wooden equipment with new steel-framed cars.

The rule provides that after the end of 1930 no car of all-wood construction, now defined as Class F, will be accepted. Effective January 1, 1931, no car of all-wood underframe equipped with metal draft arms extending 24 inches or more beyond the center line of body, bolster, now defined as Class E-4, will be accepted. Underframes of all cars other than tank cars built on or after January 1, 1927, or rebuilt on or after August 1, 1928, must have center sills with a minimum cross-section area of 24 square inches between the back draft stop.

It is definitely stipulated that no cars of all-wood construction may be transferred from one railroad to another after January 1, 1931. As railroads do not maintain revenue freight equipment which is not acceptable in interchange, this means that all of the 300,000 existing wooden cars must be replaced within the next two years. It is pointed out that in order to extend the use of some of the wooden equipment until 1934 by following the second provision in the rule would involve a cost that is considered prohibitive.

Equipment manufacturers and railroad men believe that even more drastic regulations will be adopted with respect to cars with strong understructures. According to one estimate fully 1,000,000 cars will have to be retired and replaced by the railroads of the country in the next three or four years.

Braddock Dog Added To Police Force Through Efforts In Catching Burglar

(International News Service) BRADDOCK, Pa., June 10.—Jackie, part shepherd and part police dog, early today won himself a place on the Braddock police force, to which he has long aspired.

Jackie has dogged the footsteps of Officer Ray Queens nightly while the cop made his rounds. Early today Queens was attracted to the rear of the A. & P. grocery by Jackie's frantic barking, and he says he caught John C. Gottenheim, 35, of Braddock, leaving the cellar of the store, from which $23.10 had been stolen.

Placed in the lineup at the Braddock jail, police say Gottenheim was identified by four taxi drivers as the man who has held up a number of cabs during the past few weeks.

Jackie is the property of Mrs. Mary Letkowitz, but he forsook the comforts of a warm home to patrol the streets nightly with Queens.

Dies In Airplane Crash At Elyria

Passenger Is Killed But Pilot Escapes
With Slight Injuries

ELYRIA, O., June 10.—George Hunkeler, 20, of Elyria, was killed instantly and Richard Clark, 21, of Elyria, was injured probably fatally in an airplane crash near here late Sunday.

Coming back from a short flight, Earl Vanderveer, the pilot, brought the plane within about 100 feet of the ground when it banked, went into a tail spin and plunged to the ground at the field of the Elyria Air Service, Inc., three miles south of this city. The pilot received only minor injuries, but Hunkeler was picked up dead and Clark was taken to Elyria Memorial hospital, where attendants said he had little chance of recovery.

He has both legs broken and internal injuries. Vanderveer is a pilot of long experience. He has been flying regularly at the Elyria field for four years and had experience prior to that. He came here from Cleveland.

Auto Thief Given Three-Year Term

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, June 10.—Eugene Hill, 30, of Detroit, who sawed his way out of the Uniontown jail in November, 1927, because he said, the "noisy ravings" of a fellow prisoner disturbed him, will spend the next three years in the comparative quiet of a cell in the Atlanta penitentiary. Hill pleaded guilty to transporting a stolen automobile from Raleigh, N. C., to Uniontown and was sentenced by Federal Judge P. P. Schoonmaker.

When he made his escape he was being held pending arrival of federal officers with a warrant charging him and Walter Wilson with violating the national motor theft act. They were caught in Uniontown by police with the machine in their possession. Wilson also escaped and never was apprehended.

Government officers later found Hill serving a sentence in the Wisconsin state penitentiary and at the expiration of his sentence there was brought to Pittsburgh.

Torrid Sun Grooms Bathing Beauties

Forty Four Belles Parade In Blistering Sun At Galveston

GALVESTON, Tex., June 10.—A bathing suit revue, the most stupendous attraction of Galveston's fourth international beauty pageant, from the standpoint of drawing spectators, was staged at the beach here yesterday while a merciless sun beat upon 44 belles from this country and abroad in a two-mile parade.

Excited by the adulation of thousands and fatigued by a 94-degree temperature, several of the beauties were overcome after the long ordeal. Blistered backs, arms and legs were in evidence before the belles had traversed much of the route.

The principal sufferers were those who failed to carry umbrellas. "Miss United States" will be chosen by the seven judges today and on Tuesday, "Miss Universe" will be named.

Bishop C. E. Byrne of the Galveston Catholic diocese, who dissuaded several European beauties from entering the pageant through letters he sent them several weeks ago and waged relentless war against the show, declined to comment on the event today. He admitted, however, that he would have his darts whetted and ready to hurl later.

It's hard to tell a daughter from her mother or grandmother nowadays but father can still be distinguished from his son by his bald head.

Church Mergers Being Discussed

Church Delegates Of All Denominations Meet In Buckhill Falls, Pa.

(International News Service)
BUCKHILL FALLS, Pa., June 10.—Prominent laymen, clergymen, commercial and political leaders, assembled here today for the four-day sessions of the institute of religion to discuss the feasibility of a merger of all the protestant denominations.

Discussions of the duplication of efforts by the various denominations and the study of the general trend towards consolidation and merger of various church groups will occupy the attention of the delegates. Presbyterian, Methodist, Baptist, Congregational and Reformed Lutheran church leaders, are among the 100 delegates present at the Buck Hill Falls farm in the Pocono mountains, where the daily conferences are held.

The institute was called by J. C. Penney, chain department store magnate, who believes that "business principles" should be applied to the management of the protestant denominations.

Three questions will be studied by a commission which will in turn report to the general conference. They include:

1. Tentative statement on merger of protestant churches.
2. Statement of what church machinery is needed for such unity.

3. The ways in which a united church can function more successfully than the various denominations.

Today's formal session was to get underway at 2 p. m. Fred W. Ramsey, Cleveland business man will preside.

Says Action Of Legion Post Concerning Appointment Not Warranted

That no discrimination whatsoever was shown against a New Castle ex-service man in the recent appointment of Miss Allura Leslie, of R. F. D. No. 1, North Beaver township, to the position of substitute clerk at the local office, was voiced by Postmaster Edwin W. Crawford this morning in a statement made to The News.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Perry S. Gaston post of the American Legion last week, a resolution protesting against the discrimination shown a local ex-service man concerning the appointment was adopted and is expected to be presented to Postmaster General Brown through Congressman J. Howard Swack of this district.

Postmaster Crawford's statement denying any discrimination follows:

"I am presenting the cold facts in this statement to show that I was absolutely within my rights when I made the appointment I did. I am not at all sorry I made the selection. The civil service exam was given to several applicants for the position of substitute clerk and the result of the test follows:

"First—Emel E. Branstetter, 428 Electric street. In the test he earned 96.60 per cent.

"Second—James F. Ordais, 1015

Huron avenue. In the test he earned 92.20 per cent.

"Third—Miss Allura Leslie, North Beaver township. In the test she earned 90.40 per cent.

"Fourth—Wilbert E. Hughes, 1013 Beckford street. In the test he earned 85 per cent, but because of his soldier duties during the war he was given the regular 5 per cent preference as all ex-service men are in civil service exams. His total percentage then was 90.

"In making appointments I am only authorized to appoint one of the three highest, and so could not appoint Hughes, the ex-service man whom the Legion believes was discriminated against."

Herewith is presented Benjamin Franklin Junior High School's "honor group" for 1929. Outstanding Pupils Honored By Faculty

Announce 1929 "Honor Group"
At Franklin Junior High School

A new "honor group" has been selected by the faculty and student body of the Benjamin Franklin Junior High School. Each member was given a medal at special recognition exercises held just prior to the closing of school. The students represent the best of the various grades at Franklin.

These honor pupils were selected by faculty committees from names submitted by the entire faculty. In the past it was the custom at Franklin to select and honor but one student, but the "honor group" plan has supplemented this.

The 12 chosen are selected according to the qualifications that the faculty committee believes they have. The students are apportioned as follows: Not more than five are selected from the ninth grade, not more than four from the eighth grade and not more than three from the seventh grade. Character, scholarship, service and participation in school activities are the outstanding elements that determine who the winners will be.

From the ninth grade five were selected: Alberta Gilroy, 9B1; Stella Niemczyk, 9B1; Sara McKee, 9B2; Coy Hibbard, 9A4; Thomas West, 9A4.

From the eighth grade four were also selected: Anna Alexander, 8B1; Martha Bryan, 8B1; Rose Rice, 8A1; Robert Allen, 8A4.

The following three were chosen from the seventh grade: Julia Lattier, 7A2; Mary Virginia Roberts, 7A2; Norman Lewis, 7A1.

NEW DEPARTMENT STORE WILL BE ESTABLISHED

ture business in addition to several other lines which will be added.

The aim of combining of these two firms will be to found a complete department store services such as is not found in this district as well as one which will be stocked with the finest quality of merchandise to be found anywhere.

In a personal interview with a Newsman, the two presidents, James R. Frew and C. J. Strouss, divulged plans concerning the merger in which the operation of this huge store will be carried on.

To Use All Five Stories.

The entire five story Frew block will be remodeled, this work to be started immediately. The Frew furniture warehouse and stock rooms now in that building will be moved to other quarters so as to make the entire floor space available. In the basement, first floor and second floor, the general merchandise will be displayed and sold, while the entire third, fourth and fifth floors will house furniture. This will be a much larger space in the use of the Frew business than at the present time due to the moving of the store and shop rooms to another location.

In Charge.

In charge of the Frew Company will be the same group, James R. Frew will continue to act in the capacity of president and general manager; H. M. Frew, vice president and in charge of contract work and W. A. Woodworth, department manager.

The Strouss-Hirschberg division of the combine will be in charge of a New Castle manager and the entire sales force will consist of local personnel. Announcements will be made soon of the opening of a training school for these prospective employees.

General Lawrence County Man.

A member of the board of operators who is back of the local combine is Roy J. Beacom, present merchandise manager of the Strouss-Hirschberg company. Mr. Beacom was associated with a former local firm for 15 years.

He was born at the village of Moravia, south of here and was educated in the New Castle schools. He is also a member of the local Masonic order, holds membership in numerous clubs of the city and has many friends and relatives who reside here.

Both Presidents Frew and Strouss were emphatic in their statements that they intend to make a purely New Castle store here which will employ New Castle citizens, be a thoroughly New Castle institution and back the city in all of its aims and endeavors.

To Be Complete Store.

Mr. Strouss emphasized further that this would in no way be merely a display room and branch of the company's main headquarters at Youngstown. "We intend to establish a complete store in this city and will operate it as a local institution."

The Strouss-Hirschberg company has started an expansion program and has several complete stores situated in other cities.

When the present building was erected by the late J. Howard Frew it was constructed, due to his foresight and vision, with a foundation such that two additional stories can be placed on the building, and it is the intention to add these stories in the future, as the demand arises in the expansion program.

Enlarging Business.

The Frew company, dealers in furniture here since 1895, are also enlarging their present business with the start of this new department store. The present store operates 17 departments and these will also be enlarged. An interior decorating department will be greatly enlarged and five model rooms are included in the building plan now under way and a special endeavor will be made in contract and institutional furniture work. The aim will be to make the store most complete in every line of furniture in addition to the dry goods departments.

Open in September.

The new store will be opened sometime in September, according to the announcement made. Work is to be started immediately toward the remodeling of the Frew building, situated on the corner of North Beaver street and the city and will be rushed to completion before the close of the summer.

In September the moving and final steps of both departments will be made and the full line of goods will be placed in the display cases before the formal opening will take place.

Confidence In City.

The expansion of the present Frew store and the establishment of the Strouss-Hirschberg company here indicates a confidence in the future business conditions of this city in addition to making an improvement which will be of much interest to the buying public.

WASHINGTON WILL EXTEND MacDONALD
CORDIAL RECEPTION

face talks with President Hoover concerning the future of Anglo-American relations.

London dispatches indicating the British premier is preparing to come to the United States during the summer were read with eagerness in the capital today. Everywhere in administrative circles there was manifested hearty approval.

There is reason to believe that President Hoover already has been sounded out on the proposition, and that the Queen-announcement in London was the direct result of the favorable response that quickly went winging back to London. Only a few days ago, President Hoover allowed it to become known that he would not visit California during the summer, as generally expected, but would stay here throughout the hot months. Today's London dispatch threw an interesting light on the change in the president's plans.

Seeks Naval Accord.

While the whole field of Anglo-American relations would be surveyed in such a meeting between the heads of the two governments, the primary object of MacDonald's visit, as understood here, would be to arrive at a naval understanding. Such an understanding is probably the greatest goal of the Hoover foreign policy, and in the British election just held MacDonald made it clear that Anglo-American naval accord would be the keystone of his foreign policy.

Given such a situation, it is not hard to envision two of the greatest naval powers in the world sitting down to discuss the problem unhampered by the technical details which the admirals always fight over in more formal international conferences. An unhampered, too, by the political jealousies of continental nations, which have been such a feature of the Geneva conferences.

Agreement Necessary.

The proposed visit of the British premier links up directly with President Hoover's recent instructions to Navy department experts to find a "new yardstick" for measuring the relative strength of the American and British navies. Rear Admiral Henry Jones has been working on it for weeks, and it is near completion of, in fact, it has not actually been finished. Gen. Charles G. Dawes carried out an outline of it with him when he sailed for England last week to take up his duties as ambassador at London.

An early naval agreement is necessary if the administration is to escape carrying out the 13-cruiser program ordered by the last congress. The authorization act for these cruisers provided that five should be laid down annually during the next three years, unless an international agreement should be reached, in which event the president was empowered to stop construction.

Daughter Of Local Woman Hurt In Crash

Mr. and Mrs. J. Francis Sherry of Alliquippa, who were badly injured last week, when their automobile was knocked from the road by a passing machine, near Sewickley, have been discharged from the Sewickley Hospital, and are recuperating at the home of Mrs. Sherry's mother, Mrs. John Britton, of North Beaver street.

The car which struck their machine, knocking it from the road, sped on, after the accident, the occupants refusing to render aid. Both Mr. and Mrs. Sherry were badly cut and bruised.

Members of the C. D. of A. will meet at the K. of C. Home this evening at 8 o'clock.

CAMPBELL MURDER JURY COMPLETED

New President Charles C. McKim, clerk, Roselle Park, Charles W. Forbes, publisher, Elizabeth Edward P. Colman, chairman, Elizabeth.

Campbell, a bearded, stout-looking man, whose eyes blinked under his hands, was led into the Union County court today where his wife awaited for him.

Wife at His Side

He took a seat beside her, inside the railing and she leaned over and patted his hand, then held it while she whispered to him. He cried and she cried and the spectators shifted uneasily. When an attendant came up and told the woman she would have to leave and Mrs. Louise McCready Campbell, the last wife of many, left Henry Colin Campbell close to her a jury for murder.

The New Jersey "murderer" as unprepossessing a Don Juan as ever confessed that a bigamy led him to murder, appeared doomed to a quick and certain death whether it be in the electric chair or from natural causes.

Is Only Shell

Bright disease, the ravages of drugs, partial paralysis and blindness have left him only a hollow shell of a man. He, who heaved, trembled and with the pallor of death on his emaciated face.

Waiting for him also when he was brought into court room was prosecutor Abe J. Davis, who will seek to end his life in a quicker and more certain way—in the electric chair for the murder of Mrs. Mildred Mowry.

Campbell, or Close—he had many names on his many marriage certificates—has confessed to the killing of Mrs. Mowry, middle-aged widow who sought romance through a matrimonial paper and found death while sleeping on the shoulder of her husband in an automobile, shot through the head and then her body buried near Cranford, last Washington's birthday.

DANISH GUNBOAT GOING TO ICELAND TO GIVE FLIERS AID

tated by lightning for hours against severe headwinds and storms after crossing the Faroe Islands while on the second leg of the flight.

Captain Ahrenberg, accompanied by Lieut. Axel Fjeder and Mechanic Hans Lundgren, left Stockholm at six o'clock Saturday morning.

The flight from Stockholm to Bergen was made without mishap and after two passengers were landed and the plane thoroughly examined, the airport took off again for Reykjavik.

Not long after departure wireless messages were received stating that considerable trouble was being encountered and fears were felt for their safety. These were not alleviated until definite word came through that a landing had been made.

Send Assistance

Captain Ahrenberg first advised the radio station here that he was planning to descend at Ingolshofde, on the southwest coast, and the patrol boat, Odin, was immediately dispatched to his assistance.

Later, however, it was learned that he plane had come down at Skaptavog and a fast gunboat was sent out from Reykjavik, equipped with spare parts, fuel and competent mechanics.

The flight is being made in a Junco monoplane christened "Sverrige". It is similar in type to the "Bremer" in which the late Baron Guenther von Huenefeld and two companions flew from Ireland to Greenland Island, St. Labrador.

Even if the projected trans-Atlantic flight should now become a failure the trip thus far will have proved a triumph for the radio. The fliers were able to keep in touch with civilization every moment, and allow aid to be rushed the moment word was received that trouble had been encountered.

Small Boy Accidentally Wounded By Brother

Grandson Discharges Officer Greer's Revolver And Brother Is Hit

Boys Didn't Know That Officer Had Placed Bullets In Gun

Joseph Greer, aged 10, grandson of Officer Joseph Greer of the city police force, is in the New Castle hospital as a result of a severe bullet wound in the left side and left arm, which was caused accidentally Sunday afternoon about 2 o'clock in the Adams street home of Officer Greer, when William Greer, aged 12, his brother, picked up the revolver of the grandfather and playfully snapped the trigger as he pointed the gun at his younger brother, thinking it was unloaded.

The bullet passed through the fleshy part of Joseph Greer's left breast and then through his left arm above the muscles and finally through the window in the room. The wounded boy was rushed to the New Castle hospital where on X-ray examination it was found that the bullet had struck no bones and entered no vital organs. He is resting easy and is believed to be in no danger and should recover in a short time.

According to Officer Joseph Greer, he had been on his vacation. He had taken the bullets out of his gun when he went on his vacation and placed the unloaded gun on a closet shelf in the room occupied by his grandson, William Greer. The boys had been in the habit of playing with the gun in its unloaded condition. It developed Sunday in anticipation of his return to duty Monday night, Officer Greer had reloaded the gun, just about ten minutes before the accidental shooting occurred. Joseph, the injured boy, had seen him do this, being in the room at the time.

William Greer, the older boy, had been in the bathroom at the time and knew nothing of the loading of the gun. He returned from the bathroom and not knowing the gun was loaded, picked it up and before his brother could inform him of the fact that it was loaded had pointed at Joseph and pulled the trigger. Not until he had done so, did he realize what had happened, as he saw his brother wounded and the bullet crash through the window.

The two boys are sons of Lee Greer, son of Officer Greer, and make their home with Officer Greer, 914 Adams street.

The matter was brought to the attention of the local post last week, when a man using the name of the Legion was visiting local homes, soliciting pictures to be enlarged, and offering a picture frame bearing the American Legion emblem, as a premium.

County School Work Progresses Rapidly

Construction progress at three Lawrence county school sites is highly favorable at the present time, the W. G. Eckles company, architects for the Harlansburg, Hillsville and Bessemer school jobs, announced this morning.

Work at the Harlansburg building is proceeding well, and the brick wall has now been erected up to the second floor level. At Hillsville workers are laying the finish roofing on the new 21-room structure being erected for the borough.

The Bessemer 10-room addition work has proceeded as far as the completion of the foundation and the beginning of the exterior walls.

The Eckles company expects each of the projects to be completed by the opening of school next fall. Work at the three schools represents an estimated cost of $185,000.

College Professor Speaks At Rotary

Club Is Told That Vitamins Are Essential To Healthy Bodies

Prof. Henry H. Dummitt of the Slippery Rock State Teachers' college chemistry department spoke on the importance of vitamins at the weekly meeting of the Rotary club at The Castleton.

Prof. Dummitt stated that in the study of vitamins it was at first asked: "Are we doing something that might injure the generations to follow when we set aside certain standards?" He answered it with an emphatic "no." Instead he stressed the proper usage in an attempt to build healthier and sounder bodies.

The speaker evaluated the elements of the various vitamins, A, B, C, and D, and through slides displayed pictures of dogs and other animals upon which actual tests have been made.

"If the present generation would add to its diet, milk, eggs and leaf green vegetables the world would be considerably healthier and sounder," the professor said in conclusion. "These contain the well rounded essentials for a healthy body."

Cascade Park To Be Kept Orderly

Persons Arrested For Disorder Will Be Fined, Banned Entirely

Cascade Park police Saturday night made several arrests at the recreation center and as a result several of those arrested will not be allowed in the park during the present season. It was announced today by Chief Tom Newell of the Cascade Park police.

It has been the policy of the Cascade Park police in the past to keep Cascade Park as free from disorder as possible and whenever an arrest has been necessary the arrest has been made quickly with the result that fines and costs followed conviction.

"The police will not tolerate any act of rowdiness. Cascade Park is for ladies and gentlemen, pleasure-bent. We will not allow anyone to change this policy. Persons arrested for disorderly conduct will be banned entirely," said Chief Newell today.

The police force at Cascade Park is quite large and that is one reason why such good order has always prevailed there. The rowdy element is banned quickly at the outset of the season.

Will Consider Bond Issue Plan

City Officials To Meet On Tuesday To Discuss Projects

Following months of discussion and no action, city councilmen, Solicitor White and City Engineer Miller, on Tuesday will confer as to what improvements should be made during the next five years should it finally be decided to ask the voters at the next election to approve an extraordinary bond issue.

For months council has admitted that improvements are needed here. Today the question of sewer relief flared forth again in council and Councilman Burns remarked that "if anything is to be done relative to big sewer in Wilmington avenue west to remedy an alleged intolerable condition there, plans for a five years program should be made."

Solicitor White informed councilmen that while they were discussing a proposed bond issue to be put before the people they should not lose sight of the fact that before the state will approve the issue that it must authorize the particular improvements and the probable cost.

He said that the report submitted by Fuller and McClintock, for which the city paid a considerable sum of money is not "definite," and only general. He suggested that the city en-

Two Meet Death, Plane Crashes

Two Are Killed Outright, Third Dying In Hospital At Elyria

WERE PREPARING TO LAND PLANE

(International News Service) ELYRIA, Ohio, June 10.—Two men are dead and a third was reported dying here today as the result of an airplane crash late yesterday.

George Hunka, 20, prominent in the Demolay lodge, was instantly killed; Carl Vanderveer, 33, the pilot, died today in Elyria Clinic; and Richard Clark, 21, Cleveland, is dying, physicians at the clinic said.

The three men were flying from the Elyria air service field here and a large crowd at the field witnessed the accident. After starting over the lake, Vanderveer returned to the field and dropped to an altitude of about 100 feet, preparatory to landing, when the plane suddenly went into a tailspin and crashed.

Students Hear Baccalaureate

New Wilmington High School Commencement Program Under Way

"Live a salt-life" was the charge of Dr. W. Charles Wallace to the graduating class of New Wilmington high school in his baccalaureate sermon to them Sunday evening in the United Presbyterian church auditorium, New Wilmington. For the keynote of his sermon to the 25 graduating students Dr. Wallace took as his text, "Ye are the salt of the earth."

Parents, friends and neighbors of the graduates almost completely filled the large auditorium before the class marched in. The graduates were garbed in gray academic caps and gowns and were led by two members of the junior class in both the professional and recreational march.

In speaking of the "salt-life" Dr. Wallace described it as being a life wholly governed by three interdependent urges. The first is a big ideal such as the building of the Holy Kingdom. So big is this ideal that it supersedes in value the life of the individual himself. The next urge is to live the big ideal so that ideas, the will and the actions yield to the main urge.

The third and final quality necessary for a true "salt-life" is a constant contact with Him, a contact which will result in culture and influence. In closing Dr. Wallace pointed out to the class that Christ conquered with the sword of truth and that their place in the world is to be builders with an ideal which is consecrated by service, and is influential from its contact with Him.

The choir of the United Presbyterian church sang at the service and Miss Elizabeth Rose sang a solo. Rev. J. Ralph Neale and Rev. V. L. Bloomquist took part in the service.

Tomorrow evening the class will hold its class day exercises in the community house auditorium. Several of the students will take prominent parts in the program.

Wednesday evening the final commencement exercises will bring the graduating class to the United Presbyterian church auditorium again, where they will hear Dr. C. C. Green, superintendent of the New Castle school, give the commencement address.

WAS WONDERFUL WAY TEN HERBS BENEFITTED HIM

84-Year-Old Man Declares New Medicine Made An Amazing Change

Every day more men and women of this section are endorsing the famous natural medicine, Ten Herbs, after being relieved of such health troubles as stomach, liver, kidney and bowel disorders, rheumatism, neuritis and nervelessness. The ten wonderful herbal ingredients of Ten Herbs also cleanse and tone up the ailing human system, bringing new feelings of health and strength over the body in general.

Many words of praise for Ten Herbs are heard at Eckers of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington St., this city, where this new compound is being introduced.

"I shall be pleased to tell anyone of the wonderful benefits Ten Herbs gave me," was the recent statement of Mr. George W. Shick, who is 84 years of age and lives on Higfield Street, Butler, Pa. The 10 left me in a badly run-down condition—I was just a shadow of my former self. My kidneys were badly disordered. I had been troubled with my stomach for years. Gas caused the worst kind of bloating and pressed up under my heart. I was also troubled with heartburn, and could not eat anything without having distress afterwards.

Nervousness kept me from getting a good night's sleep and I would feel terribly tired in the morning. Severe dizziness came on me at times, would have to stand still awhile. I had severe backaches and was forced to arise often during the night. My liver troubled me, and I was always taking something for constipation. They specks would flash before my eyes. My blood circulation was poor. My hands and feet would get cold. I had trouble walking up stairs, and lost some weight.

"So many persons told me what Ten Herbs had done for them that I started using your medicine. It proved to be just what I needed. I have not the least sign of kidney trouble now, and my stomach is in fine condition. I can enjoy my meals without having gas, bloating, or heartburn. My nerves are quiet. I sleep soundly all through the night, and feel fine when morning comes. Dizziness, headaches and backaches have disappeared, and I am not bothered with those specks before my eyes. I am able to walk up and down stairs with ease. I can cut wood and walk four and five miles a day without tiring, and have regained lost weight."

Ten Herbs is being introduced at Eckers of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington St., this city, and is sold at all drug and medicine stores throughout this entire section.

Days' Prayer In Congress

The chaplain, Rev. James Shera Montgomery, D. D., offered the following prayer:

We close the door of the busy world as we approach the altar of prayer, where our Heavenly Father waits forevermore. In Thy mercy Thou hast kept us, O Lord, and Thy might hast preserved us. Thou, who are the living God and the God of the living, hast overshadowed us with Thy faithful presence. As our country needs the strong soul and the high endeavor, do Thou enable us to fill every position with honor and perform every duty with fidelity. We praise Thee "so long Thy power hast blest us, sure it still will lead us on. Yes, lead us on to the deeper rest and the better life, on and on to youth's immortal day when we grow old Amen."

Pittsburgh Officer And Mount Have Covered Many Miles Together

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, June 10.—Twenty years in the police service, travelling almost 75,000 miles during that time is the record of Mounted Patrolman Charles C. Crummer, and his mount "Rawdog."

Crummer, recalling his score of years in the service, reminisced over his activities, the escorting of famous personages, the progress of the city and changes during that time.

Most important to him, however, is the fact that he and his mount have been inseparable.

"Rawdog" was the first mount I got when I entered the department," Crummer said, "and I've never had another. He's the smallest in the service but one of the best. We've averaged twelve miles a day on duty and Rawdog has never been off duty for sickness."

"I guess he and I have travelled enough to have gone around the world about five times."

Chicago Girl Is Victim Of Suicide

The boy managed to cut the body of his sister down while the girl was still breathing, but she died shortly afterward.

Catherine Mastie, friend of the girl, told police about the letter. Detectives were unable to find it and it is believed the girl destroyed the communication before she took her life.

Two Famous Stage Stars End Lives In Tragic Manner

Miss Margaret Lawrence, Beautiful Actress, And
Louis Bennison
Found Dead

OFFICIALS ARE INVESTIGATING

Believe Murder-Suicide Cause
Of Shock To New York
Theatrical World

By DAVID P. SENTER,
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

NEW YORK, June 10.—Two desperate lovers lay side by side on icy stone slabs today in the city morgue.

They were Margaret Lawrence, actress beautiful, once a magic name along Broadway and Louis Bennison, not without former fame as a two-gun cowboy on stage and screen.

Both had slipped from the heights, the actress from the very top in her luxurious Penthouse apartment atop 34 East Fifty-first street in the shadow of the Park avenue OC which she was once part, they brooded and drank.

Bennison played his last melodrama. He fired a bullet straight through the heart of his beloved as she slept. Then he knelt beside her body and sent a bullet through his own heart.

Had a Lead Part.

The ex-cowboy had left a wife and child in California to live with the blonde beauty. He was given a chance to "come back" by obtaining a lead part in "This Thing Called Love" which was to open tonight.

An autopsy today on the bodies of the two lovers will decide whether the tragedy was a suicide pact or motivated by jealousy. A note in a scrawling hand was found pinned to the door. It read: "The sunset will take care of both of us."

"TIANNA," Mrs. Gertrude Chalaire of Long Island City, lifelong friend of Miss Lawrence said that the note was written by the actress.

Drinking Heavily.

However the fact that the stage star was peacefully asleep when she was slain suggested some doubt as to the love pact theory. Or possibly Miss Lawrence, after reaching the grim agreement, slipped off into a stupor. Empty liquor bottles and glasses littered the fashionably appointed.

The revolver used by Bennison bore his initials. His friends reported that he carried it around with him and that on several occasions he had talked of possible suicide "as a way out."

Mrs. Chalaire discovered the tragedy.

Sewer Cleaning Machine Is Here

Will Be Demonstrated By Company Representatives To City

Councilman Clayton Reeves today stated that a new sewer cleaning machine, the purchase of which was authorized by council recently, has arrived here and within a few days it will be placed in service.

Reeves believes that when the cessation of sewer flushing stopped several years ago that many of the sewers filled up.

An expert from the plant where the sewer machine was manufactured will instruct the city employees how best to use it.

It has been charged in open council by citizens that some of the back-water troubles has been caused by filled-up sewers.

Councilman Reeves today said he had no doubt but that some of the trouble is due to this.

He also intimated that now that the machine is here a special staff will take this work in charge.

Reeves also said that he will expect this staff to do the work and to do it properly.

Mrs. Copley Thaw Philanthropist Is Called By Death

Aged Internationally Known
Pittsburgh Woman Is Victim Of Pneumonia

GAVE THOUSANDS TO CHARITABLE CAUSES

PITTSBURGH, June 10.—While charitable institutions the world over mourned her passing, plans were being completed here today for the funeral of Mrs. Mary Copley Thaw.

The aged mother of Harry K. Thaw, succeeded early Sunday to pneumonia. At her bedside were two children, Harry K. and the youngest of his sons, Joseph C., who was in Paris.

Tentative plans called for services on Wednesday at the Third Presbyterian church, which with countless other institutions benefited handsomely from Mrs. Thaw's charities.

Mrs. Thaw, who would have been 87 years old in a few days, was the widow of William Thaw, one of Pittsburgh's wealthiest philanthropists. With her husband's passing, Mrs. Thaw took over his charities, and her donations have supplied the life's blood to institutions reaching from San to Arizona. There is hardly a large institution or charitable enterprise in the country which has not at some time received a donation from the Thaw fortune.

Mrs. Thaw had been confined to her mansion here for four years following injuries suffered in a fall. She was one of the iron city's social leaders, but her activities in her later years were largely centered on philanthropies.

ENJOY FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

Flavored With Sugar They Are Delicious and Healthful

"My first rule for healthful eating," said one of the foremost food scientists in this country, "would be to insist on at least one dish of raw vegetable salad and at least one raw fruit every day."

"My second rule would be very similar—to eat at least one cooked vegetable and one cooked fruit every day. You can vary the fruits and vegetables according to the season, their price, and your taste."

His next remark emphasized the value of sugar in making fruits and vegetables so palatable that people would eat them, not simply for their beneficial results, but for general enjoyment of their flavors. "Sugar," he explained, "is the greatest of all condimental foods. It brings out the natural flavor of fruits and vegetables."

It is important that people enjoy the food they eat. Otherwise they will not eat a varied enough diet. Sugar, one of nature's most perfect flavors, plays a part in making almost all the foods we eat more inviting.

A pinch of sugar improves the flavor of nearly every vegetable. Remember a dash of sugar in corn, in tea or coffee, in all milk drinks. Good food promotes good health. The Sugar Institute.

Baccalaureate Program Attracts Large Crowd

One Hundred And Six Graduates March In Grey Robes Into Liberty Theater

REV. C. G. HUFFER
GIVES FINE ADDRESS

Splendid Children's Day Program Presented Sunday Morning At The Church

ELLWOOD CITY, June 10.—The baccalaureate program of the 1929 graduating class of the Ellwood City high school attracted a large and interested crowd to the Liberty theater Sunday evening. As early as 7:30 the crowd began to assemble to see the largest class in the history of the local high school receive their religious message.

The stage of the theater was edged with light green bunting, the background was bunting with palms. The program, "The Overcoming of Sin," was introduced by the high school orchestra, led by Paul Winter, director of music in the local schools.

At eight o'clock the orchestra struck up "March Past" by Schubert and the graduates, in grey robes, entered the theater in uniform. The graduates, led by Paul Winter, entered the theater in uniform. The graduates, led by Paul Winter, entered the theater in uniform.

Rev. C. G. Huffer of the First Christian church gave the sermon of the evening entitled "Getting the Most Out of Life." He opened his remarks with the sentence, "To those who were circumcised, getting the most out of life means in youth, opportunity, in manhood, achievement, and in old age, a blessed memory."

Rev. J. J. Baker read the scripture lesson, the third chapter of St. Paul's Epistle to the Philippians. Which formed the basis of Rev. Huffer's fine sermon.

The high points of the discourse came when he told of the life of the Apostle Paul stating that Paul did not seem to get the most out of life in spite of his success as one of God's apostles, but he was adept at forgetting the things that were behind him and always turned his face to the future. Rev. Huffer asked the graduates not to consider their education as ended status. "Education is life, and all life is an education." He further urged the members of the class to be unsatisfied rather than dissatisfied, for an unsatisfied individual has a hungry soul and a burning ambition while the dissatisfied man can only offer destructive criticism.

Rev. Huffer's formula for getting and maintaining a happy outlook on life was to count something good to memory each day. Seek for some beautiful thing each day and do a good deed each day. His final words to the class were, "You live in a great world and success may be yours. The ladder has been set before you and will climb it."

Another feature of the program was the Senior chorus of the members of which raised their young voices in two splendid numbers, "Pilgrims' Chorus" by Wagner and the celebrated, "Send Out Thy Light" by Gounod. The chorus was led by Paul Winter.

Rev. A. M. Stevenson of the First Presbyterian church acted as master of ceremonies, introducing the various musical acts. Part of the program, Rev. Charles B. D. D. pronounced the invocation. Rev. Bert Williams of the Baptist church uttered an eloquent prayer, the old and well-loved hymn, "Abide With Me," was sung by the assembly as a closing number, followed by the benediction pronounced by Rev. Robert Little of the Methodist church.

The Story Of The World War
XXXI—Japan Strikes At Germany In The Far East

SOON AFTER THE OUTBREAK OF THE WORLD WAR IT BECAME APPARENT THAT MANY NATIONS WOULD BECOME INVOLVED IN THE GREAT CONFLICT. ON AUGUST 15, 1914, JAPAN, AS THE ALLY OF GREAT BRITAIN, SENT GERMANY AN ULTIMATUM DEMANDING THE WITHDRAWAL OF GERMAN WARSHIPS FROM EASTERN WATERS AND THE EVACUATION OF THE LEASED TERRITORY OF KIAOCHAU, CHINA.

AUGUST 22, A JAPANESE FLEET SAILED FOR KIAOCHAU. GERMANY IGNORED JAPAN'S DEMANDS, AND ON THE 23RD THE LATTER DECLARED WAR. THE FOLLOWING DAY JAPANESE WARSHIPS OPENED FIRE ON TSINGTAU, A STRONGLY FORTIFIED PORT OF KIAOCHAU, HELD BY THE GERMANS.

THREE DAYS LATER THE JAPANESE PROCLAIMED A BLOCKADE OF KIAOCHAU, AND IN THE FIRST DAYS OF SEPTEMBER LANDED 10,000 TROOPS IN SHANTUNG. THIS FORCE WAS SOON STRENGTHENED BY THE ARRIVAL OF 20,000 JAPANESE AND 2,000 BRITISH SOLDIERS.

WITHIN THREE WEEKS THE JAPANESE HAD COMPLETELY INVESTED TSINGTAU, AND HAD ESTABLISHED THEIR LINES ON THE HEIGHTS OVERLOOKING THE CITY. THE GERMAN GARRISON HELD OUT RESOLUTELY.

Tricky Golf Course At Winged Foot May Cause Stars Some Little Difficulty

JONES-FARRELL TO RESUME RIVALRY

By Davis J. Walsh
Sports Editor International News Service
NEW YORK, June 10.—Robert Jones is likely to find Winged Foot some thing of a puzzle in which the harder the boys, the more the becomes involved. So is Walter Hagen. It is a course, however, that may lead to the stars' return to the game. Jones and Hagen, who will not meet until the third round of the Jones-Farrell match, are both in the mood to play the course to the hilt. Jones, who has been in the United States since his return from Europe, is in the mood to play the course to the hilt. Jones, who has been in the United States since his return from Europe, is in the mood to play the course to the hilt.

Stroke-savers
"They are stroke-savers around the greens," explained "But these greens have deep, furrowed traps like Oskunk," precluding anything but an expert shot, and their usual stroke-saver in the bunkers is liable to be hampered if not altogether nullified. Of course, if they are hitting their long ones straight, that will be another story. But, as I see it, they simply make in these shots on the line or become resigned to those deep traps, and their tell of strokes.

Hagen hasn't played the course in more than a year, but according to Farrell's press, neither he nor Jones will be more than normally bothered by this growth on the margins. Their own tendency plus the irregularities of the course toward their clubhouse "club" is their greatest nuisance, he thinks.

"When Hagen wins, he always does it with a miracle CHUG," Farrell added.
Is Tricky Course
It was inferred from this remark that the machine might not be a thing out of the world too heavily on in essaying a shot with a one on this course. How, then, to go about it? Only two ways, it seems. Hit the ball, and let it go. Or, if you can, let it go. Or, if you can, let it go.

I asked Farrell how he himself was going to play the layout.
"I'll tell you," said he, earnestly and with commendable modesty, "I'm just going to do the best I can."

But, you see, neither Jones nor Hagen is the type to compromise about a thing like that. They are determined for the day and this is one course where you either make the perfect shot to the green or add a couple of strokes to your score.

Farrell, who beat Jones in a play off for the title at Olympia Field last year, has played Winged Foot for years and knows it more intimately than any other entry, barring Mike Brady, the home professional. Jones is certain that this will be his last year, he believes that 300 won't be more than a stroke or two outside the winning score. He professes not to have the slightest idea who will furnish the magic figure but reluctantly admits that he fears the worst for Leo Diegel and Horton Smith.

"Both hit low irons and these won't do on this course," he explains. "The greens are too small, too elevated and too tightly trapped to make this close-to-the-green play effective. Besides, Leo hates elevators."

This latter is one of the added handicaps in the list of natural handicaps arranged by the course for the open championship. Jones got all he wanted of it during a recent practice round or two some days ago. And it will be worse for the championship, since it only was beginning to grow at that time as a result of the continued rains this spring. Two weeks hence, it will be in full bloom.

An early watermelon lies in the semi-tropical sun a long while and travels a long distance just to give some doctor a job.

Correct this sentence: "I am truly very humble," said he, "and I never yearn to beat the fellow who says I am not."

Pittsburgh Has Tough Schedule

Tackles Giants In Four Days' Series Soon At Forbes Field

PIRATES MAKING PENNANT CLAIM

Harold L. Pelt, Captain of the Pittsburgh Pirates and one of the greatest and most popular stars in the national pastime today.

Some of the best baseball of the year is going to be on tap at Forbes Field, Pittsburgh, during the next few weeks for "Donnie Bush" and his Pirates. The Pirates will be playing, among others, two of their greatest rivals for the pennant.

Muggsy McGraw and his last traveling New York Giants come to Forbes Field for a series of four games on June 12, 13, 14 and 15, the latter being a Saturday date. The Giants are one of the most colorful teams in baseball and more than the usual interest is being manifested in this their first 1929 appearance at Forbes Field because of the fast clip they have been traveling during the past few weeks. In fact, the Giants have been playing the best ball of the league and have climbed from a lowly position to within a few games of the top of the heap. The Pirates, also have continued to play pennant winning ball and have kept right at the top of the heap.

After a short jaunt into the west the Buccaneers will return to Forbes Field for four games with the Cincinnati Reds on June 26, 27, 28 and 29. The Reds after a prolonged slump seem to have found themselves and now are playing the good ball of which they are capable.

Then comes the Fourth of July series at Forbes Field and again the Western Pennsylvania fans are favored with a pennant contender for a holiday attraction. The St. Louis Cardinals, with their array of heavy hitters move into Forbes Field for games on July 2, 3 and morning and afternoon games on July 4th, at 10:30 a. m. and 2 p. m. Holiday games always are attractive but more than the usual interest is attached to the Independence Day games because two of the most likely pennant contenders will hook up in hectic battles for supremacy.

The Cincinnati Reds come back to Forbes Field for a single game on Saturday July 6 and then the Buccaneers are off to the east again.

STARS WIN GAME AT FARRELL ON SUNDAY

The National Radiator Colored Stars defeated the Farrell Grays 12 to 12 in a game played yesterday at Farrell. Waters and Gray had the pitching assignment for the Stars. The game was well played despite the lopsided score.

CUBS-CARDINALS GAIN ON PIRATES

By LES CONKLIN

NEW YORK, June 10.—Ability to defeat their most recent one of the chief reasons why the Yankees will dominate a season before the championship this season. New York 17 to 4 landslide over St. Louis yesterday marked the Yankees' fourth victory over the Browns in as many starts this season and enabled the champions to two-throw plate away from Brower's men.

The Yanks cut the lead of the Athletics, who were odds-on seven games. The National League race tightened when the Cardinals and Cubs won while the pace-setting Pirates, who had captured five straight games, lost to Brooklyn, 9 to 6, despite home runs by the Warner brothers.

Wilson Hits Homer
A homer by Hank Wilson with Hornsby on base in the seventh gave Art Nehf of the Cubs a 2 to 1 edge in a pitching duel with Ben Cantwell of the Boston Braves.

The Phillies made 13 hits off Jess Haines of the Cardinals, but had that many men stranded on the base paths and lost, 5 to 4.

The Giants, who had won 15 of their last 17 starts, were set back by Red Lucas of the Reds, 2 to 1. Farmer Jack Scott hurled his best game of the season for the Giants, but lost his own game when he failed to reach the plate safely from first base on Roush's long double.

George Uble of the Tigers was beaten by the Red Sox, 7 to 6. The Tigers apparently put the game on ice by scoring three tallies in the ninth, but in their half of the inning the Sox put on a four-run rally climaxed by Starritt's double.

The Senators knocked Jovo Mijovic out of the box and beat Cleveland, 5 to 2, behind Ad Liska's good pitching.

Jimmy Foxx, Athletics' Home Run Show

By JACK SORDS
Sports Cartoonist Writer for Central N. Y. Here's how he did it:

When this boy Jimmy Foxx, baby star of the A's, hits a homer it's a show. There you have the reason why the old time fans who still visit Shibe park in Philadelphia and whose idols were Barry and Collins and old Jack Coombs have taken this boy Foxx to their hearts.

When Foxx hits a homer it's usually a spectacular one. The other day he cracked the center wall of the Athletics' park on the fly. The first time that has ever been done.

Nearly all of Jimmy's big swats are of Ruthian proportions. They keep going up until they are out of sight. His masterpiece occurred in Boston when, figuratively, he drove a ball from the big bean town to Albany, N. Y. Here's how he did it: Foxx drove a ball over the left field wall at Fenway park which cleared the street, sailed over a factory beyond and landed on the Boston & Albany railroad tracks just as a train bound for the New York state capital roared by.

Jimmy has plenty of competition on his own club for homer honors. Mickle Cochran and Al Simmons are both hitters par excellence and the big rosy-cheeked Jimmy has been having a time of it to keep ahead of his teammates in the matter of homers.

During the early part of this season Foxx smacked all sorts of pitching, hitting .525 for a string of 15 games.

Italian Athletic Association defeated Wampum four to nothing at Centennial field, Saturday afternoon.

Oil Conference Open Today In Colorado Hotel

Oil Conference Called By President Hoover Gets Under Way Today

"LITTLE FELLOWS" TO HAVE INNING

International News Service, Colorado Springs, Colo., June 10.—The "little fellows" interests were expected to be the center of a battle on the part of representatives of independent producers and governors of several states as scores of official delegates and observers met at the Broadmoor hotel today for the oil conference called by President Hoover. Demands by representatives of independent producers that the restrictions imposed by the interstate compact on oil and gas permits on public lands be modified were expected to follow vigorous protests by officials of western states to President Hoover's oil conservation policy.

Hampers Development

It is claimed that these restrictions will hamper development and exploration work, particularly in the Rocky Mountain region. One of the leaders in the fight against the restrictions is Governor Frank Emerson of Wyoming, the largest oil producing public land state. He said that while the state did not anticipate any oil boom, the state demanded the right to continue an industry that has brought it considerable revenue.

W. H. Gray of Tulsa, Okla., president of the National Independent Oil Producers association, went on record as declaring that before any interstate compact, suggested by President Hoover, can be concluded at the conference, there must be provision made for a substantial tariff on the importation of oil into this country.
